

Asian Arbitration Summit

You are invited to a half-day summit on September 18 with Lee & Ko, JunHe, Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu and the Singapore International Arbitration Center (SIAC) to discuss U.S. legal issues that are important to Asian companies. The event is sponsored by the Korea Trade-Investment Promotion Agency (KOTRA).

Held at the New York International Arbitration Center (NYIAC), the summit will discuss the following:

- Contract Interpretation – Tension between Civil Law and Common Law. A panel discussion on the “tension” between the two legal systems, with perspectives from Korea, Japan, China, Singapore and the US, to see how different jurisdictions treat different aspects of the law, which in turn calls for varying countermeasures.
- Arbitrator’s Perspective – Different Approaches to the Parol Evidence Rule, Privilege, Admissibility of Evidence & Witness Examination. Companies can be caught off guard by varying approaches taken by arbitrators, which can have lasting consequences on the outcome of a dispute. Drawing on personal experiences as arbitrator/counsel, our panelists will discuss practical ways in which companies can be better equipped to tackle such differences.
