

Data Security & Privacy Law Seminar

Navigate, Protect and Defend Data in South Korea

Are you Ready?

Date 23 September 2025 (Tuesday)	As South Korea continues to accelerate into a more fully digitalized economy, businesses face increasing challenges in protecting personal data and ensuring compliance with evolving privacy law. This seminar will provide an overview of the the Personal Information Protection Act with practical guidance on navigating and complying with in South Korea. Attendees will gain insights into the technology tools used in defense of data breaches and to modify systems when information systems are breached and data is compromised in addition to recent enforcement trends, risk management strategies through cybersecurity insurance, and best practices in an era of e-commerce, fintech, and AI-driven services along with a discussion on various recent data security breaches. Overall, the program will guide businesses to enhance consumer trust and to avoid costly compliance pitfalls.
Time 4:00 PM–7:00 PM (KST)
Venue B1F, Poongsan Building 23 Chungjeong-ro Seodaemun-gu, Seoul
Language English

Registration Link

Program
3:30 PM – 4:00 PM	Registration	Speaker
	Introductory Remarks John JungKyum Kim, Moderator – Dentons Lee
	PIPA Compliance and PIPC Enforcement of recent High-Profile Data Breaches Sung-Eun Ahn – Dentons Lee
4:00 PM – 6:00 PM	Learn about Today's Threat and Landscape: Hack Yourself and understand the Mind of a Hacker Oscar Arnflo – Security Office
	Cybersecurity Risks and Insurance Solutions (in Korean) J.S. (Junsung) Park – Aon Korea
	Post-Breach Forensics and Global Case Studies Kyung J. Kim – FTI Consulting (U.S.)
6:00 PM – 7:00 PM	Reception and Networking

서울시 서대문구 충정로 23 풍산빌딩 14층 03737
14F, Poongsan Bldg., 23 Chungjeong-ro, Seodaemun-gu, Seoul 03737, Korea
T 02-2262-6000 | F 02-2279-5020 | info.korea@dentons.com | Website